Magnificent 16th-century Aragonese farmhouse. Original wooden beams, thick stone walls and traditional fire places lend a special charm to every corner.
The house comprises:
Seven double, en-suite bedrooms; three with balconies and two with vintage bathtubs.
Owner s accommodation in the beamed attic, consisting of double bedroom, en-suite bathroom, walk-in wardrobe, lounge and office area.
Single bedroom
Reception area with wood burning stove.
Dining room in the old wine cellar, with bar and WC.
Kitchen 1 with fitted cupboards, built-in appliances, oak worktops and tiled floor.
Kitchen 2 with fitted cupboards, stand alone appliances, granite worktops and tiled floor.
Lounge area with typical Aragonese open fireplace.
The property has 1900m2 outside space including lawned garden, terraces, vegetable garden and private parking for 6 vehicles.
There is a stone barn attached to the property, with potential for conversi3n into 1-2 apartments or yoga studio or similar. It is in good condition, has a new roof and the stone work is good.
The property is located just 19km south of the medieval town of Aínsa, which is well-serviced with shops, weekly market, supermarkets, health centre, school, garages, service station, banks, restaurant, hotels, library and sports centre.
The property is a fully licenced casa rural and this is fully transferable to new owners.
Whether you are looking to run a boutique guesthouse, host retreats, or simply embrace a slower, more meaningful pace of life, this is a unique chance to live and work on your own terms in one of Spain s most spectacular and sought-after rural regions.
